Catholic Life of the School

In the Gospel this weekend, Luke 3:15-16, 21-22, we hear about Jesus' Baptism and about something very special that happened after it. He was filled with the Holy Spirit.

We hear about how John the Baptist was baptising people with water. He says that someone is coming who is more powerful than he is. Who do you think that person is?

John says he is not good enough to untie the strap of Jesus' sandals. What do you think John means by this?

John does not feel that he is important enough to help Jesus. But, Jesus asks to be baptised by John. What do you think this shows us about Jesus?

All of us are important in our own special way, and we are all important enough to serve Jesus. Jesus welcomes us all and sees that we all have special gifts and talents to share.

After he is baptised, Jesus prays, and while he is praying, the Holy Spirit comes down like a dove. Then a voice comes from heaven saying, "You are my own dear Son. I am pleased with you."

Jesus is the Son of God and he is filled with the Holy Spirit. We are all God's children and we are also filled with the Holy Spirit at our baptism.

What difference do you think being filled with the Holy Spirit makes?

The Holy Spirit can help to make us brave and to bring us joy. Just as we can tell that a tree is good because of the fruit that grows on it, we can tell if the Holy Spirit is working in us by the way that we act and how we treat other people.

Some fruits of the Spirit are love, peace, kindness and generosity.
How do you think you can be kind, loving and generous to others?
How can you bring peace?

We are all God's children no matter where in the world we live, no matter where we come from or what we look like, whether we are rich or poor. We are all members of the same global family. And so we try to be loving, kind, generous and bring peace to all people. In this way, we hope that others will be able to see the fruits of the Holy Spirit and our baptism in all that we do.

How will you show the Holy Spirit working in you in this coming week?

Dates for your diary:

15th January 2025 - Start of Term Mass at Holy Family Church (Yr 2 to 6) – everyone is welcome
St John's Feast Day (celebrating from 27th Dec.) – children in this house can wear a green t-shirt.

Dear Families,

Welcome back to the new school term and the start of 2025. I hope you all had a lovely Christmas break and the start of the new year has been a good one so far!

This week, I would like to draw your attention to a current campaign being raised by a group of our parents, you may have seen this in Lynn News this week. They have put together an application to take on the Carnegie Library building in town and are one of the two shortlisted candidates and the only local organisation. Their charity is called The Margery Kempe Trust: a centre for life writing and storytelling and they are currently running a teaser campaign that will go on until the end of this month to raise awareness around their organisation and application. Since they are only just getting established, they need to prove to the panel (Norfolk County Council) that they can be creative and effective in their outreach and that they have the town's support. They have under a month until their interview and are seeking the support of our school and local community.

Trio of local parents who formed trust become finalists in bid to take over historic library building as they believe 'everyone has a story'
Three locals who first met picking their children up from nursery have teamed up in a bid to "save the library for the people of the town".

At the moment they are only raising awareness, and looking for people who are interested to sign up to our newsletter and follow them on social media. If you are interested to find out more, please visit their social media pages, links below and sign up to their newsletter.

Please do keep an eye on our Calendar of Events in each weekly newsletter as events may be added or dates may need to be changed. We try to avoid making changes where we can but if we need to, we will endeavour to give as much notice as possible. Any changes will always be highlighted.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend,
Mrs Edwards
